

NO. 261

January 2020

Dynamic Busan

A new year, a new decade, a new start

It's a brand new year, and with it comes a chance to start anew. It also marks the beginning of the city's seasonal festivities and events, which always welcome visitors from around the world. From the spring's flowers and the summer's waves to the autumn's films and the winter's lights, there's always something to do in the city. Moreover, Seollal, Korea's traditional way to welcome the new year in the lunar calendar, lands on Jan. 25 and offers plenty of things to enjoy, see and experience in Busan during a four-day holiday.

Related story on page 2

Good morning, 2020! Residents celebrate the coming of the new year by making wishes and greeting the sun on Haeundae Beach.